

MARE

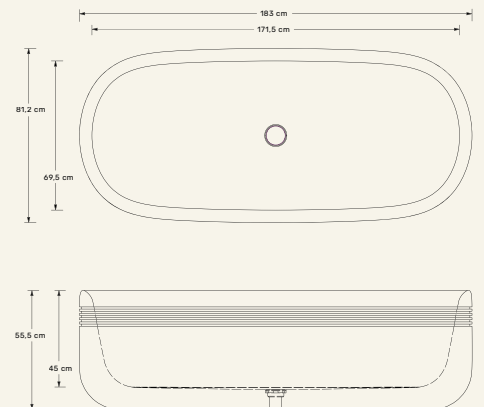

BATHTUB

MAAMI
HOME

Mare is a monolithic natural travertine bathtub, carved from a single block. The honed matte finish preserves the stone's open porosity and sedimentary strata, allowing the surface to breathe and reveal the material's geological identity. A ring of chisel-cut grooves traces the rim, introducing geometric rhythm to the organic travertine surface. It features an integrated stone drainage system.

Name Mare Designer Mara Soares, 2025

Materials & finishings Body carved from premium Travertine marble, honed-matte to retain the stone's natural open-pore character.

Installation freestanding Production details Rough-shaped from a single travertine block on a 5-axis CNC, guaranteeing millimetric symmetry. Perimeter grooves hand-chiseled by master stonemasons; all edges softened and re-honed for tactile comfort.
