MAAMI
HOME

UNIR is a modular wash-basin that turns Ceppo di Gre into a smart, re-configurable statement piece. Precision-cut stone blocks slide together without visible fasteners, allowing multiple layouts while keeping the silhouette calm and sculptural. The result is a transport-friendly vanity whose texture adds an understated note of luxury to bathrooms of any scale.

Materials & finishing Components cut from solid Ceppo di Gre stone, honed-matte to emphasise its texture.

Production details Each module rough-milled on a 5-axis CNC for micron-level accuracy, then hand-honed to soften edges and reveal the stone's grain. Concealed stainless-steel pins and keyed joints guide assembly, ensuring perfect alignment without adhesives.
